Paul Corey Obituary

Paul Randall Corey 69, of Canonsburg, Pa., died October 18, 2024, at his home.

He was born on August 16, 1955, in Salem, Ohio, son of Inez (Hostetter) Corey and the late Robert Corey.

Paul was a 1973 graduate of Crestview High School, a horse trainer, and owner of Paul Corey Racing Stables. It was only natural for Paul to be in the horse training business, with a history of it in the family. Paul also enjoyed time at home, playing with the dogs, grilling outside while having something cool to drink.

In addition to his mother of Columbiana, he is survived by his wife, Shawnie Lynn (Kennedy) Corey, children: Todd (Amber) Corey and Kiane Henderson, siblings: Robert (BJ) Corey, Tom (Cindy) Corey, & Cathy (Chip) McConville.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by a brother Jay.

A private service was held on Tuesday, October 22, 2024, in Salem, with burial that followed in Grandview Cemetery.

Arrangements were entrusted to the care of Arbaugh-Pearce-Greenisen & Sons Funeral and Cremation Services, Salem.
